It is the epitome of exclusive dressing – the walk-in closet combines customized storage with a well-structured overview and easy access. The raumplus Legno sideboard is a freestanding addition to the company's versatile interior and shelving system, providing an on-trend island option. The centrally located piece is the perfect height to provide access from all sides; offers counter-top space to choose and tidy away clothing; and allows you to showcase jewelry and accessories under glass. Its design and materials complement the wall-mounted closet and shelf options delivered by the Legno and Uno interior systems, creating an attractive overall look with an elegant, dark Matrix Pine décor.

The scheme shown in the photo allows the dressing room to be partitioned off from the adjoining bathroom using the S1200 AIR sliding door system with profiles and glass panels in Bronze. The elegant combination of materials is continued in the RPS aluminum-frame hinged doors used for the adjacent closets, while the Legno interior system provides dust-free storage for evening wear and shoes on angled shelves with edging. The closets blend seamlessly with the Uno interior system, whose open shelves and cubbies with closed flaps and drawers allow easy access to everyday clothing.

The closets blend seamlessly with the »Uno« interior system, whose open shelves and cubbies with closed flaps and drawers allow easy access to everyday clothing. Illuminated shelves and aluminum-frame glass shelves with LED lighting; clothing rails; and an illuminated mirror ensure that everything can be seen in the correct light, while pants pull-outs and purse hooks provide low-impact storage options for clothing and leather purses and bags. The island sideboard is the perfect place to keep small items such as lingerie, socks, belts, and jewelry. Clever organization systems such as Box pur and special inserts for watches and jewelry ensure that there is a place for everything and everything is in its place. A convenient, comprehensive program that will help you relax – every day, not just on vacation.
